

U.S. TO PROVIDE LOANS TO SMALL BUSINESS MAN

RFC Chairman to disclose Arrangements Within
Week or So

DRASTIC ACTION
IS NOT EXPECTED

Liberalizing of RFC lending Forecast By
Well-Informed

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—The
administration extended a virtual promise today to help small businessmen borrow money.

Although details were withheld
pending further study, Chairman
H. H. Jones of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation was reported ready to disclose the loan arrangements within a week or 10
days.

His intention was made known Thursday by Secretary of Commerce Roper, who was host to a round of small businessmen at last week's turbulent conference.

Speculate On System

Speculation on the proposal
ranged from mere continuation of RFC lending to elaborate systems of new federal credit agencies and federal insurance of private loans to business.

Usually well informed officials
said they "guessed" the administration was not ready to do anything
more drastic than to extend and possibly liberalize the type of lending which the RFC has been doing for more than three years.

Under the past RFC program,
industrial loan authorizations totaled
about $190,000,000, of which about $100,000,000 actually was loaned.

This set-up, however, was described as over-cautious by the small business delegates, who suggested either federal insurance or direct loans from another agency.

The insurance idea was urged today by Sen. Claude Pepper (D-Fla.), who introduced a bill to authorize
the RFC to do the insuring.

His proposal would permit the RFC to guarantee bank loans to businessmen up to $100,000 for five years, provided the loan were backed by real estate or other property
worth 125 per cent of the amount of the loan.

The change would be permitted to charge a maximum of 6 per cent interest plus a maximum of one per cent service charge, and the RFC
would collect an insurance premium
one-half to one per cent.

901 Mines Sealed In County, Report

By sealing 901 openings of abandoned mines in Columbiana county
recently and 27,531 over the state, WPA workers have reduced sulphuric acid pollution of Ohio streams by 55 per cent, it was announced today by Dr. Carl Watson,
state WPA administrator.

The sulphuric acid has been poisoning wells and springs, killing fish and vegetation, corroding dams
and steel boats and skyrocketing the cost of filtration.

This conservation project is being carried on in Columbiana county and 23 other eastern and southwestern Ohio counties by 1,000 WPA workers under the technical supervision of B. F. Hatch of the state health department.

Goose-Step in Berlin Street for Fuehrer

GIRDLER SEES BUSINESS GAINS

But Warns Many Uncertainties Are Still Existing

(By Associated Press)
DEL MONTE, Calif., Feb. 10.—T.
M. Girdler, chairman of Republic
Steel Corp., and president of the American Iron and Steel Institute,
said today there were signs of further gains in industry.

"But many uncertainties still exist," he warned in an address
for delivery before the fourteenth annual conference of iron, steel and allied industries of the California State Chamber of Commerce.

"We have been hearing a great deal recently about cooperation between government and industry,
and the idea won universal approval," he continued.

"One of the reasons for our present difficulties has been the growing attitude on the part of the government that business is exclusively the vehicle of a few wealthy people, and is something separate and distinct from the public."

Basic Fallacy
"That is a basic fallacy in economic thinking. The fact is that practically the entire public of the United States is engaged in business, directly or indirectly,
except those in government employ."

Declaring "there are some who would have the country believe that high steel prices have put the steel sign in the path of recovery," Girdler said a 10 per cent reduction in the price of steel would reduce the cost of an automobile
only $8 or the cost of a $4,000
house only $17.

He said steel prices had advanced 21 per cent and wages 31 per cent
in the last 15 months.

"The steel industry, like all industry, wants to move forward," he concluded. "I believe that the country is ready to move ahead,
once confidence is restored by permitting industrial and economic systems to function free
from harassments and oppressive
controls."

Plan Discussion On Home Equipment

Instruction on how to choose the desirable type of electrical equipment for the home will be given at a meeting of women of Colum-biana county to be held at the Lisbon grange hall, three miles west of Lisbon, at 1:30 p. m. Tuesday, Feb. 15.

Miss Thelma Beall of the department of home economics, Ohio State university, will lead the discussion. The meeting is sponsored by the agricultural extension service and is open to all who care to attend.

The discussion will include the general points in selection of equipment, the advantages and disadvantages of the different types of appliances, costs, costs of operation,
possible replacements, servicing and other convenient features offered
by various types of appliances.

It is expected that a large number of women from the farms and towns of Columbiana county will
attend.

FIVE ARE KILLED BY HURRICANE

Northern California's Damage Hits Millions
Of Dollars

(By Associated Press)
SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 10.—A hurricane killed five persons, injured scores of others, and caused millions of dollars of damage in northern California today, as the storm moved inland from the Pacific coast.

The wind, which at several places
along a 300-mile front reached almost tornado force yesterday, came as a shrieking climax to 14 days of storm. It left in its wake broken communication systems, blocked highways and railroads, and a menace of floods from additional rains predicted for today.

Extending northward from San Luis Obispo, midway between San Francisco and Los Angeles, the hurricane raised up mountainous waves that pounded the coast line, and raged
inland for 200 miles.

Three men and a woman were killed by falling trees or buildings,
and a coast guardman drowned
when his boat overturned.

The 70-mile-an-hour wind twisted the $35,000,000 Golden Gate bridge, longest single suspension
span in the world, more than 12
feet out of line but the bridge
swung back into place after the wind subsided.

Sacramento, California's capital,
had more than a score of persons injured and one man killed. Most of the city was without electric lights and street car service was halted.

The funeral service will be conducted at 9 a. m. Friday at Cleveland St.
Thomas Catholic church. Burial will be in Calvary cemetery in that city.

Miss O'Keefe graduated from Salem High school. She went to Cleveland from Salem a number of years ago with her parents.

Martin Kaley and family of Jennings ave., will attend the funeral service.

Potato Men Rally In Salem Next Week

The annual all-day winter meeting of potato growers of Colum-biana and Mahoning counties will

Methodist Episcopal church here on Thursday, February 22.

The program will include the discussion of various growers' problems. Speakers will be announced in a few days, according to County Agent Floyd Lower of Lisbon.

ACCUSE LISBON LADS IN THEFTS

Police Nab Pair after Series of Automobile
Robberies

The arrest of two Lisbon youths
here early yesterday morning by Patrolmen George Reasly and Paul
Ormsby and Safety Director C. E.
Donahay has cleared up a series of automobile thefts here and in Lisbon.

Miles Smith, 20, and William Fox, 20, admitted, under questioning by police Wednesday afternoon, that they had been stealing cars in the district for the past year or more.

They also admitted, Chief of Police Ralph Stoffer said, entering garages
at homes and also taking articles
from parked machines.

The officers nabbed the Lisbon
youths in an alley downtown, shortly after they had attempted to get into an automobile owned by R. W.
Campbell, S. Lincoln ave.

Late yesterday the boys were turned over to Patrolman Charles Patterson of the Lisbon police department.

Usually, the boys would steal a car in Lisbon and drive to Salem.
Later they would steal one here
and then return home. They confessed entering the garage of Dr.
C. McCandless and stealing a car
owned by City Engineer F. S.
Barrkoff one night about a year
ago.

Arraigned before Mayor G. C.
Rauch at Lisbon last night the youths were bound over to the grand jury. Unable to furnish bonds of $1,000 each, they were committed to the county jail.

Way Open For PAY MOVEMENT

U. S. Steel Renews With CIO But Provisions as to Wages
Are Left Open

NEW YORK, Feb. 10.—The United States Steel Corporation and the Committee for Industrial Organization, their 1937 labor contracts
renewed indefinitely, left unanswered today the question of whether cuts in steel prices would force wage reductions.

The contracts, announced yesterday at the end of a three-day conference, left open the way for either a reduction or increase in wages at any time and even for termination of the agreements.

"We are of the opinion that the agreements definitely stem the tide
of wage-slashing which has been imminent throughout the country,"
said Philip Murray, chairman of the Steel Workers Organizing Committee.

"Heretofore," he added, "there has been a decided hesitancy on the part of consumers to purchase
steel, due to the belief in many circles that price-slashing would take place. This was to be followed by wage reductions."

Even before he spoke, however,
several independent steel companies
announced a cut of $4 a ton in the price of cold-rolled and oiled sheets. The Carnegie-Illinois Steel corporation, largest subsidiary of U. S. Steel, immediately met the new price.

Benjamin F. Fairless, president of U. S. Steel, recently warned the administration that government insistence on reduced prices necessarily would mean reduced wages.

CONGRESS GETS F.D.R. PLEA FOR RELIEF MONEY

$250,000,000 For Four and a Half Months
Is Requested

CASH TO AUGMENT
PRESENT WPA FUND

Most Would Be Used In Leading Industrial Centers

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—President Roosevelt asked congress today
for immediate appropriation of $250,000,000 to meet relief needs during the next four and a half months.

"Funds available at this time,"
the President wrote Speaker Bank-
head, "will not only not take care of the additional burden caused by the recent increase in unemployment but will require a sharp reduction in the near future of the number on the Works Progress Administration rolls."

Aid Industrial Centers
WPA officials, anticipating the President's request, said most of the money would be used in industrial centers, especially the automobile
manufacturing cities.

The money would be in addition to approximately $497,000,000 which WPA now has remaining from its original allotment for this fiscal year.

"The funds available on January 1, 1938," said the President, "would permit employment of an average of only 1,700,000 persons for the six months ending June 30, 1938.
The number of persons on the works progress administration rolls
today is 1,950,000."

WPA officials have reported that
if additional funds were not forthcoming they planned to prune the rolls down to 1,500,000 by the end of the fiscal year. The WPA announced there were 68,479 more persons on federal relief on Jan.
29 than there were a week before.

Cities Deficiency Appropriation
The President informed Bank-
head that a deficiency appropriation of $250,000,000 would "permit
the continued employment" during
the remainder of the fiscal year, ending June 30, of persons now on work relief and would "provide a reasonable measure of relief for those who have recently become unemployed and are in need."

The President said that according to the best available estimate "it appears that, during the past three months, approximately 3,000,000
persons have lost their jobs with private employers."

"It has become increasingly clear that these needs can not be met unless employment by the works
progress administration is increased immediately."

'Chipped In' To Democratic Fund, Say Coal Operators

Athens Mine Owners Charge They Had to Give To Campaign Fund In Return for Business

(By Associated Press)
COLUMBUS, Feb. 10.—Testimony that three Athens county mine operators were required to contribute to the Democratic campaign fund while selling coal to the state was added today to the record of the senate investigating committee.

Relatives of one operator testified they protested in vain to the governor's office, attorney general and auditor of state.

Mrs. Eula Savage and Mrs. Lottie Smathers of Buchtel said Charles Leasure, then a secretary to Gov. Martin L. Davey, "laughed at us and said there was nothing we could do except quit selling to the state."

Ask Unified Department

A resolution calling on Gov.
Martin L. Davey to authorize the legislature to consider establishment of a unified state purchasing department was adopted overwhelmingly by the house yesterday,
despite administration efforts to
sidetrack it.

Rep. William J. McCulloch (R-Miami), house minority leader, contended in offering the resolution that such a division would result in large savings to the state. Rep.
Bishop Kilpatrick (D-Trumbull),
majority leader and administration
supporter, sought unsuccessfully to have the resolution referred to the rules committee.

Ralph Hartman of The Plains,
Ohio, said that he was born in Youngstown, but that on Dec. 15, 1935, another affidavit was filed
giving Evans' birthplace as England.

The second affidavit, Miller said,
related that Evans was naturalized
by his father's papers in 1895. Miller contended that Evans' father
never was naturalized.

"Meanwhile, the Ohio Edison company, by holding the fact of the defendant's alienage like a blunderbuss at the defendant's vitals, have extracted from his government an illegal franchise at ex-

period of time, and other sinister interests extract illegal commitments and contracts and otherwise raid the public treasury of the city by threats of exposure of the city's alienage of the defendant," Miller said in his petition.

Seba Miller, supreme court clerk,
said the suit would not be filed until instructions were received as to whether it could be brought directly in the high court.

WAR

War is hell precipitated by economic complications. It's also a psychological phenomenon, which follows a fixed pattern.

That pattern can be traced like this:
After each war there is a' revulsion of feeling against war, leading to hope of eternal peace. Everything warlike is anathema.

War must be abolished. War could be abolished if the people—the cannon fodder—could assert themselves. The people firmly believe this.

Their leaders don't. They are realists. War must come sooner or later, they say quietly. It always has. Some of them screw up their courage to the point of shouting that war is glorious.

Gradually, the people awake to the fact war has not been abolished. There is another—a secondary—revulsion of feeling. The horrors of war again are described in lurid detail. Warmakers are cursed and reviled. Precautionary legislation is passed. The people try to assert themselves; they will not be drawn into war.

They will let the warriors destroy one another if they must, but they will not become embroiled unless the warriors go too far. In the meantime they will take precautions—more soldiers, more armaments, more mobilization plans. Just let the troublemakers try to start something. The United States has reached this stage now. There is one more stage before war itself.

The war spirit grows. The peace lovers hate the warriors and would like to destroy them—to make the world safe for peace lovers. War becomes inevitable. War becomes a glorious sacrifice to save the decent people of the world against brutes and baby killers. By that time the brutes and baby killers feel the same way about peace lovers.

Again there is war.

ALL TAXES ARE "BAD"

The Ohio Education association, circularizing its members to block action on a proposed constitutional amendment outlawing the sales tax in Ohio, has one crushing argument which it can use to good effect. That is the failure of the backers of the proposal to propose alternative sources of revenue. The O. E. A., in other words, is not necessarily supporting the principle of a sales tax, but is stoutly supporting the principle that the state can't spend money without collecting it.

That was the argument which put across the sales tax in the first place. When real estate interests and property owners put through the 10 mill limitation on property taxation, Ohio turned to the sales tax for revenue to maintain services demanded by the public.

If Ohio were to hamstring itself again by making the sales tax unconstitutional, new sources of revenue would have to be found. It is only common sense to inquire what they would have to be before abolishing one "bad" tax for another. Most taxes are "bad," but no one ever says anything about repealing the expenditures which make them necessary.

HALF THE BATTLE

Timing, they say, is half the battle. Dr. Townsend must agree it is.

When called before a house investigating committee in 1936 he had a large and highly vocal following. Old Age Revolving Pensioners was suffering from internal disorders, but the faith of the gullible hadn't been shaken yet.

They arose as one man to protest the persecution of their leader. Thousands of otherwise disinterested citizens joined them. Tension reached a climax when the good doctor walked out on the investigation.

But there's no tension now. OARP might be another new deal agency for all the people care. So the District of Columbia court of appeals finally gets around to confirming the conviction of Dr. Townsend for contempt of the house of representatives.

Yes, timing is half the battle.

MOURNERS

Chief mourners at the pit where peace negotiations between the American Federation of Labor and the Committee for Industrial Organization lie buried are two fellows named Joe.

One of the Joes is the employer who stands to get shoved around in jurisdictional fights between the two organizations. The other Joe is the employee who will be called upon to do the shoving. Neither can be blamed for wondering what labor leaders hope to gain by irreconcilability, except a lot of grief.

It isn't the first time a funeral has provided an occasion for the mourners to come closer together in mutual sorrow.

THE STARS SAY:

For Friday, February 11

According to the predominant planetary influences, there may be a change, upset or travel in connection with new or distant affairs. These would be advantageous providing the tendency to frivolity, indulgence or other forms of rash or impetuous conduct are held in leash. Shun quarrels, passion, jealousy or enmity, and deal consistently with old folks and carefully in old matters, business and social, affectional or domestic.

Those whose birthday it is may expect a year of change, with strange or distant matters promising benefits providing the tendency to indulgence, frivolity and rash adventures in pursuit of folly be shunned. These may incite enmity, jealousy, even quarrels, passion or other tempestuous and impulsive manifestations wholly detrimental.

A child born on this day may be energetic, wilful and wayward, prone to self-indulgence and the extravagant pursuit of pleasure. It may be impetuous and quarrelsome and, at the same time, good-natured and full of fun. It may have a public career, possibly in the amusement world.

O. O. MCINTYRE

NEW YORK DAY BY DAY

NEW YORK, Feb. 10—Jack Pearl is another comedian to achieve a wish-fulfillment by appearing shortly in a straight dramatic role. Al Shean, a low comic and surviving half of Gallagher and Shean, is an outstanding dramatic hit in the role of a kindly priest.

Pearl is last of the Dutch comedians to scramble the language in pop-bottle gurglings. Long after that Weberfieldian type of humor was extinct he was making a thousand or so a week exploiting topsy-turvy talk with his foil, Cliff Hall, on stage, radio and screen.

Like so many other of the dialect funsters, Pearl is a product of the lower East Side and arrived via Gus Edwards' kid revues. A shy fellow with a hang-dog wistfulness, he has been among the few to salt earnings when the going was good and is financially secure.

The Astors—Nancy and Waldorf—hid away during a large part of their Florida vacation in a sequestered inn at the sea edge near Delray. Zoe Beckley, who was in similar seclusion finishing up some magazine pieces, was nearby and plopped into them several times. Lord Astor's chief interest centered in the trailer life so pronounced in that state. He could scarcely believe that people lived in them and had no other homes. So Zoe showed them around and introduced them to a few of the other half.

Zoe Beckley, fresh from an expert secretarial job in Wall Street, came to the Evening Mail as a job sister cub shortly after I went on the staff. Buxom, apple-cheeked, with a zest for life and an infectious laugh she did much to brighten the drabness of that gloomy editorial haven. Once she got a real whiff of printer's ink there was no stopping her. In a few months she was writing by-line stories and her name was placarded in box car type on delivery wagon posters. I left the Evening Mail, at the abrupt request of the management, and the next I saw of Zoe was on deck of an ocean liner one moon-light night. She was one day out on way to interview Queen Marie of Roumania. The same night the ship headed into a 75 mile gale and as we limped into port, all a shade of pea green, Zoe wrote in my autograph book: "In memory of Mrs. Atlantic's permanent wave."

A favorite dish of the practised diner in the Chinese cafes is meat worms, composed of Chinese vegetables, boiled noodles, a sprinkling of pork and a soupy goo poured over all. Since Earl Carroll transferred his talents to Hollywood I have been unable to keep up to the minute on Chinese emporiums. He was a bloodhound in scenting out such places. They are always excellent until the crowd discovers them and then the somehow become all alike. Tops at the moment is a place on Canal Street near the Bowery.

Tribute: About the finest compliment ever paid an actor was bestowed on John Drew by Booth Tarkington. Said Tarkington: "Drew could play Simon Legree so that Legree became a misunderstood gentleman."

George Jean Nathan is the sole chain play reviewer. He is now official critic for Esquire, News-Week and Scribner's but unlike the syndicated columnist, there is no master copy run in identical language. Each of the three departments is separately treated. Question: How far can Nathan carry this without repeating his own stuff?

Thingumbobs: George Arliss thinks Bette Davis is the Katharine Cornell of the screen. . . The original manuscript of Theodore Dreiser's "An American Tragedy" is for sale at $3,500. . . Paul Sann, a copy boy on the Evening Post a few months ago, recently had a by-line on a Page 1 story. . . J. B. Priestly is the only play author to make a curtain speech so far this season.

Memory: The cloying aroma from wet chickens after a summer shower.

SENSIBLE HOBBY

Recently I had an agreeable conversation with a well-known and successful doctor. We got along well because we were in full agreement, which doctors not always are! He stressed the importance of hobbies and their relationship to health. There can be no doubt that the evil effects of the stress and strain of life could be avoided if it were the universal practice to adopt and follow hobbies.

They promote mental and physical relaxation and, unquestionably, serve to prevent many nervous disorders. A real hobby acts like a tonic and is a builder of health.

It is the feeling of many physicians, particularly the nerve specialists, that many "nervous breakdowns" could be prevented by having genuine interest in things outside the daily duties. In this way the tired mind and body get great relief, rest and lowering of tension.

In the development of a hobby, there may be much of educational value. This is especially so as regards the specialized activities of young children. But, young or old, everybody benefits by a change of work and the relaxation that results from it.

List Is Endless

Of course, a hobby cannot be forced upon the individual. The choice of a hobby depends entirely upon one's own likes and dislikes. Some find interest in books, paintings, photographs, gardening or stamp collecting, while others are more interested in exploring, modeling, canoeing, fishing, hunting or carpentry. It really makes no difference what the diversion is, so long as it holds the attraction.

I advise all parents to encourage the hobbies of the children. Never discourage a particular interest that a child may exhibit. Bear in mind that keen attention to a hobby, whatever it is, will build up for the child a valuable, pleasant and lasting pastime. It will keep his mind alert and satisfied, prevent irritability and smooth over many difficult moments.

A hobby need not be an expensive one. In many cities and communities there are clubs and civic centers which make a great feature of the hobbies. They cater both to children and adults. Attendance at hobby gatherings has aroused many a person and creates a desire to go forward in the pursuit of an appealing hobby.

Let me warn you, however: The hobby should never become an obsession, taking too much attention and time; there can be too much of a good thing. It would be a pity to have the hobby become the means of exciting stress and strain by being overworked. But, when properly followed, it leads into the path of happiness and good health.

Dr. Copeland is glad to answer inquiries from readers who send an addressed, stamped envelope with their questions. Address all letters to Dr. Copeland, New York City.

SYNOPSIS

The loss of the family fortune did not phase Ann Delafield, just nineteen and the youngest of three daughters. Now that her banker father had failed and was only earning $80 a week in the reorganized company, she was not going to sit idly by, but would get a position. Her sisters, Bernice and Claire, twenty-one and twenty-two, respectively, just laughed. And Mother heart attack when anything went wrong. Freddy Brannigan, an irresponsible artist and Bernice's heart-throb, arrives with news of the opening of a new supper-club called "The Laughing Pig." "Get me a job there," Bernice pleaded. "Couldn't I be a barnmaid or something?" So Bernice goes off to the club with Freddy. Claire, a bridge fiend says any money she earns will come from that source. Her present bridge partner is Captain Freyn, a questionable character though persona grata on Park Avenue. Ann goes in search of work. Her mother disapproves.

CHAPTER III

"When I was younger than you, I was married. Why, I was the age you are now when Claire was born! I can't think what you girls are thinking of, with all the chances and admirers that you have. I mean—she corrected herself, using the past tense meaningly—have had—not even getting engaged—which would be such a comfort to your father and to me in our dreadfully changed circumstances."

"I don't want to have any of them engaged till they meet the right man," Dad broke in, curtly. Lolly's mouth drooped.

"There you go, never thinking of me, or of the tremendous effort I made over their coming-out parties! And all to no purpose, James!" Her voice rose to a wail.

Ann said quickly: "We're going to be ever so happy all together here, Lolly, so don't worry. And you know, half the debutantes of this past year—the ones I came out with—have jobs. In fact, eighty-per-cent of the whole Social Register's working. It's the fashion, darling, and I'm sure everybody's a whole lot happier than just playing about."

Giving her mother no chance at further argument, Ann vanished to the kitchen, to return five minutes later with a dainty little breakfast tray. Orange juice, biscuits and coffee, and a four-minute egg exactly as Lolly liked it, served in and on the fragile, rose-garlanded breakfast-set on its fresh linen cloth that was the color of sunshine.

Then to breakfast with Dad in the alcove dinette. Ann maintained a cheerful stream of conversation. Who cared about the old depression—the turn of fortune's wheel—when they could all be together. Why! for herself she really quite welcomed it, for the social round had already grown monotonous. All the latest girls she knew in the crowd were working. She was simply "rarin' to go!"

Dad's tired face lightened as he talked to her. He adored his family, but while Lolly favored Bernice, Ann was his pet. As he looked at her fresh young face, lit by enthusiasm and intelligence, it was as though it, that the steep path didn't seem so difficult. Love lit the way.

With meticulous care, Ann bathed and dressed herself for the forthcoming interview in the big department store of Barclay & Weiss. Very little make-up. She didn't need it. She had a good clear skin with the faintest shell-pink shining through it, that—quite au naturel—defied cosmetics, except a fluff of vaseline on brows and eyelashes.

For Ann was no prude, and belatedly in augmenting what the good Lord had given her in the way of beauty, if necessary. She took a long look at herself in the old-fashioned pier glass of the room she shared with Bernice. Lovely Bernice who was still sleeping (with her make-up on, and plenty of it) after her evening in "Le Cochon Qui Rit" (ridiculous but intriguing name!), with absurd Freddy.

"If I should ever fall in love—" thought Ann, then made a pretty little face at herself in the mirror. The man she fell in love with would be the exact antithesis of her Captain de Freyn—or Freddy. Somebody strong! Somebody one could look up to!

Society (so-called) seemed full of broken weeds, or—what was the exact word!—light weights. Sharp-shooters, lots of them were. She thought of the near-set eyes of Claire's best friend, his ability at cards, his smoothness which she hated.

She regarded herself in the mirror with keen scrutiny. Not from the point of vanity, but from the selling point. She had heard that the impact of one's appearance in a big department store—

ment store—whether in role of executive or employee—counted enormously.

Ann saw a tall, slim girl, long-limbed, and with a kind of gauche gracefulness. Large eyes, expressive, of a dark blue, shown under the fine brows and long, curly lashes that were typical of the Delafield sisters. Her mouth was a bright flower, untouched by rouge as were her cheeks, that perhaps seemed a little thin, due to the high Celtic pitching of her cheekbones.

"My chin is my best point," thought Ann. It was softly curved and feminine, but it expressed courage.

Courage! Nerve! Those were the things one needed most of all in 1938, in a world that had gone haywire!

She smiled. She had lovely teeth. Her tip-tilted nose crinkled a little when she smiled. She lifted her chin, and thrust back the natural waves of her light brown hair that sprayed from the widow's peak on her beautiful young forehead.

She would make good! She must make good! There could be no two ways about it.

Were her clothes right? The navy-blue suit with the polka-dot tie and cuffs, the tiny tilted sailor, severely plain, the white suede gauntlet gloves fresh from the cleaners, dark blue Oxfords and matching handbag, et al?

"I have nice feet and ankles, anyway," thought Ann. "And nice hands." From now on, they would be useful hands. Hands and grey matter would work together.

It was the last day of Indian summer. And half past ten in the morning when Ann walked into the great department store of Barclay & Weiss. Already there was a big shopping crowd, for the store was popular. Ann was fortified by the letter of introduction she carried from Mr. Thomas F. Barclay, the elder of the millionaire partner-owners. The merchandise-man was the person to whom to present it. He was some sort of a cousin of Mr. Barclay's, she had heard. Blue-blooded, but self-made, financially speaking. Not very easy to get along with, someone had told her. A friend for work. Mistrusting society women of his own background smitten with a yen for making money. "He might," thought Ann, "be a tough nut to crack."

A GLORIOUS FAILURE

When the general store of Lincoln & Offutt at New Salem, Illinois, went bankrupt, Abraham Lincoln found himself an apparent failure in life—with his future mortgaged by debt.

However, the rugged honesty of Lincoln's nature would not permit him to repudiate his obligations. Instead, through long years of patient thrift he paid off every cent that he owed.

The world today needs more individuals—and more nations—willing to keep their promises as Abraham Lincoln did his.

No banking business transacted on Lincoln's birthday.

was the lingerie department, full of entrancing trail furberlows in pastel tints. Beyond it, further down the aisle, was the silk-by-the-yard counter, with stands cascading rainbow hues of taffetas and crepes.

Now silk was Ann's pet weakness. She stopped for a minute, fingering the fabrics.

Stuff that dreams were made of! A woman's dreams to please a real or imaginary lover!

Suddenly she was conscious of an argument nearby—between a complaining customer and a worried salesgirl over several yards of peach-colored silk-crepe which the customer had evidently just bought and now wished to return.

"It won't wash, I tell you! Now that I've felt it, it's just like some good-looking stuff I bought up-town and when I started to press it the iron went right through it, like paper! You can just take it right back, Miss!"

The Truth Hurts

ST. PAUL.—George Murphy, who pleaded guilty to a charge of drunken driving, was frank when Judge John Pinehout asked him why he didn't have a driver's license.

Thirty days in jail without option of a fine was the judge's answer.

Maybe This Is Why You're Constipated

Perhaps the kind of food you eat doesn't give your bowels anything to work on. Meat, potatoes and bread don't form the kind of soft, bulky mass that will help move your bowels.

If so, a dish of crisp, crunchy Kellogg's All-Bran for breakfast will give you just the kind of "bulk" your intestines may need to work properly.

And additional potassium, the intestinal tonic, vitamin B, which helps to tone them. If you want to get at the cause of your trouble, eat some Kellogg's All-Bran every day as a cereal or baked in muffins.

And drink plenty of water. All-Bran is made by Kellogg in Battle Creek. Sold by every grocer.

HE SEES WHO BUYS WHAT TOBACCO

Like so many other independent experts, Bill Whitley, Tobacco Auctioneer of Henderson, N. C., smokes Luckies

WILLIAM D. (BILL) WHITLEY sold over 15 million pounds of tobacco last year. It's easy to see that he's an expert who knows tobacco.

So it's important to you when he says... "At 14 different markets in Georgia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee and Kentucky, I've seen Luckies buy the best tobacco. I figure it's good tobacco that makes a good smoke. So my own cigarette is Lucky Strike!"

"I've noticed, too, that independent buyers, not connected with any cigarette manufacturer, smoke Luckies more than any other brand."

Mr. Whitley is correct. For sworn records show that, among independent tobacco experts, Luckies have twice as many exclusive smokers as have all other cigarettes put together. Remember: The men who know tobacco best smoke Luckies 2 to 1.

HAVE YOU HEARD "THE CHANT OF THE TOBACCO AUCTIONEER" ON THE RADIO?

When you do, remember that Luckies use the finest tobacco. And also that the "Toasting" process removes certain harsh irritants found in all tobacco. So Luckies are kind to your throat.

Veteran Editor Feels He's Freer As He Grows Older

EMPORIA, Kas., Feb. 10.—William Allen White became 70 today—a busy newspaperman in robust spirits.
To put it one way: He is "not afraid of tomorrow for I have seen yesterday and I love today."
The editor of the Emporia Gazette feels he gets "more and more free as I grow older. It's a reversal of the customary ways of man and I can't explain it."
From 50 on he regards his viewpoint as having grown more liberal.
"In my youth," he said, "I believed this a perfect world. I thought any attempt to change it was wicked and futile. I've always been proud of my constancy geographically; I've stayed at home.
But I've gone a lot of places spiritually in my last forty years."
He won't stand for eulogies, even
at a dinner with a friends tonight.
Of the national scene White had
this observation:
"I don't believe there will be a cataclysmic change. We have too large a middle class capable of choosing and following an intelligent leader in crises. Be sure to say 'in crises.' But we've got to accept things and realize they are necessary."
"We must realize the American workers have a right to organize.
The right to collective bargaining carries with it the implied right to work. We need vertical unions such as those of the CIO just as we need the craft unions. Labor has to get together."

TAKE WEIGHT OFF TIRED FEET

Loose Fat The Easy Way—Without Starvation
Diets, or Back-Breaking, Bending
and Rolling Exercises.
If your feet and ankles feel tired and ache
all over—because you are carrying too much fat—do something about it. Try the treatment that has helped millions to reduce excess weight.
There's a reason why so many people find dieting slow and often times futile in reducing. The reason, doctors say, is often because a little gland is not working right.
All the blood in your body goes through this tiny gland sixteen times every day. If it doesn't pour into the blood stream about one and one-half drops of vital fluid every 24 hours, many people take on ugly fat.
This fluid helps Nature to "burn up" excess
food and fatty tissue in much the same way as a good "draft" acts in a furnace.
Now, physicians combat this condition by feeding this gland the substance it lacks—
and millions of pounds of excess fat has been wiped out in the process.
Marmola Prescription Tablets contain the same element prescribed by most doctors in treating their fat patients. So don't waste your time or money striving to reduce with starvation diets or back-breaking exercises.
Start the Marmola treatment today that millions have used to get rid of excess fat.
The formula is in every box so you know just what you are taking. Don't wait—get a box of Marmola today from your druggist.

Mullins Manufacturers Roll Into First Place In City Bowling Tournament

B. Shepard Paces Mullins Keglers To First Place In Handicap Tournament

Manufacturers Hit 2867 To Take Lead In Annual Bowling Event; Mullins Foremen Cop Second Place; Zimmerman's Take Over Third

The lead in the five-man event of the annual City Handicap Bowling tournament was held by Mullins Manufacturers of the National league today following their top performance during tournament activity at the Grate Recreation alleys last night.

The Manufacturers hit 2867 to take over first place in the five-man competition, combining games of 998, 937 and 932 to make their top score. A 204-pin handicap is included in the three-game total.

Bill Shepard, who last year rolled a 278 score during tournament competition, paced the Manufacturers into the lead with a 590 series.

Eleven other teams took cracks at the maples during tournament shooting last night. Twelve more quintets are slated to roll tonight.

Mullins Foremen of the National league took over second place in the team event by banging out games of 948, 1006 and 841 for a 2795 total, including a 165-pin handicap. Lead.

The Foremen rolled their fine score was Mayor George Harter, who turned in a 565 series, including a 234 single game score.

Third place was taken over by Zimmerman's Oldsmobiles of the National league, who used a 300-pin handicap to full advantage in marking up 2772. Zimmerman's score was made with games of 894, 983 and 895.

The Natural Gas Co. team, which rolled 2755 Tuesday night, remained in fourth place, while the Ohio Bell of the Commercial league went into fifth place on a 2667 score.

Other scores turned in last night were: Salem News "B", 2669; Economy V-8's, 2667; Electric Furnace Panthers, 2634; Electric Furnace Americans, 2607; Berg Bretzels, 2505; Fernengel's Colts, 2602, and National Sanitary Office, 2592.

Among the teams slated to roll tonight is the Class A National league's leading Salem News quintet, which includes in its lineup Jess Hays, the only scratch bowler in the tournament.

The News Class A team is ranked as the best in the city, although chances for this quintet to click off a first place score are limited by the team's low handicap.

Other teams competing tonight are Masons "B", Althouse Motors, Mullins Foremen "B", Mullins Die Room, Bunn's Shoes, Floding & Room, Bernard Dried, Electric Furnace Federals, Young Democrats, Grate Recreation, Masons "A" and the Forgotten Five.

AMATEUR FIGHT SHOW ATTRACTS 300 LOCAL FANS

Hamacher Wins by knockout; Don West Also Victorious

Providing new life for amateur boxing in Salem, more than 300 fight fans filled the Memorial building gym last night to watch 16 simon-pure sluggers trade punches in a highly-interesting show promoted by Jimmy Perry, local athletic club director.

Satisfaction with the all-amateur program, the first to be presented in Salem in several years, was expressed by practically all of the spectators who sat through the eight action-packed bouts.

Only one knockout was scored, but the remainder of the bouts produced sufficient leather-swinging to make up for their lack of kayles.

Bill Hamacher, 19-year old German youth and one of six amateurs participating in the show under the colors of Perry's A. C., provided the knockout when he sent Kid Freconna of Alliance down for the count in the second round of the main go.

Three other fighters from Perry's club also gained victories.

Hamacher, a 170-pounder, caught the Alliance fighter square on the face with a powerful left hook to score his kayo one minute after the second round opened. He had previously knocked Freconna to the mat in the first round and held a wide edge in points when the knockout was scored.

The chances of 16-year old Don West for an exceptional amateur career were enhanced in the semi-final when the Salem High school freshman outpointed Enoch Henry, self-assured East Palestine lightweight to win on a decision.

It was the fourth straight victory for West, who showed plenty of promise in punching the East Palestine boy into submission. All three of the judges voted for West.

Waiting for an opening to land a knockout punch, Henry failed to carry the fighting to West in the first and second rounds. He came forward, but was somewhat out of sync, and still could not get the best of the Salem youth. West carried the fighting to Henry all the way, except for possibly a few seconds in the last round.

Ray Eyst of Washingtonville gained a close decision over Kid Jackson, New Brighton, Pa. Negro, using a looping left hook to score most of his points.

Jackson, who was somewhat shorter than Eyst, was unable to get in close to the Washingtonville boy.

Although losing the decision to Art Tangi of Alliance, Carl Woner of Salem staged one of the best battles of the program. Two of the judges voted for Tangi, while the other called the bout a draw.

Woner looked good in the second round when he was consistently showing his left hand into Tangi's face.

A technical knockout awarded Freddy Fox of Salem over Kid Mulch of East Palestine was protested by handlers of the East Palestine boy on the grounds that Fox hit Mulch while the latter had one knee on the mat.

Fox held a clear edge over the East Palestine fighter, although his victory was darkened by the protest. The bout ended in the second round.

Substituting for Eugene Altomare, who was removed from the card because of sickness in his family, Bill Crouch of Salem received a lacing from George Koyle of East Palestine. Crouch was unable to land any telling blows during the bout and was handed the majority of the punches.

The Pioneers are the favorites although the Bobcats won last month, 35-32.

Bob Shannon of Salem was awarded a decision over Jackie Ealy of East Palestine in a 139-pound preliminary scrap. The judges voted unanimously for Shannon, although many fans voiced the opinion that the bout was a draw.

The curtain raiser produced a lively battle between Tommy Mansfield of Rogers and Bobby Mansfield of Salem.

COLUMBIANA TO ENGAGE 2 FOES

Wiand's Cagers to Meet Sebring, Austintown This Week-End

COLUMBIANA, Feb. 10.—Facing two stiff assignments, Coach Jimmy Wiand's Columbian High school quintet will take on Sebring and Austintown Fitch in games Friday and Saturday. The Fitch contest will be played here.

Sebring defeated East Palestine and Boardman in the past two weeks, handing these teams their first Tri-County league set-backs. Both Boardman and East Palestine have defeated Columbiana this season.

With 10 wins and four losses of their record, Wiand's cagers rate as one of the better teams in the district and figure to go far in the Class B tournament.

Faculty Manager F. E. Miller is attempting to schedule a game for Feb. 25 to fill the gap between the Louisville game and the district tournament.

East Palestine with Mansley coping the decision. Both lads top the scales at less than 100 pounds.

Jimmy Peroz of Alliance was third man in the ring for all of the bouts and handled each battle in good order. Judges were George Baillie, Sr. of Salem, Bert McCulloch of Alliance and R. T. Stern of Salem.

East Palestine with Mansley coping the decision. Both lads top the scales at less than 100 pounds.

Jimmy Peroz of Alliance was third man in the ring for all of the bouts and handled each battle in good order. Judges were George Baillie, Sr. of Salem, Bert McCulloch of Alliance and R. T. Stern of Salem.

POTTERS FACE QUAKER QUINT FRIDAY NIGHT

Sell-Out Assured As All Reserved Seat Ducats Are Gone

Another full house will greet Coach Herb Brown's Salem High school Quakers tomorrow night when they take to the North Lincoln ave. court for their annual fracas with East Liverpool High school's Potters.

Faculty Manager Frederick E. Cope announced today that a sell-out crowd is assured for the game. No reserved seat tickets have been available for the past two days, Cope said, adding that what general admission ducats remain will be placed on sale at the gate.

Keen interest in this year's East Liverpool-Salem tilt has been brought on by the fact that both teams boast good records and each has contributed a major upset in district basketball circles.

The Potters, who have won 10 of their 14 starts to date, bounded into the spotlight recently by turning in the tables on a strong Canton McKinley team, while the Quakers, who have won eight of their 11 games, attained fame by upsetting Massillon's mighty Tigers.

In addition to Canton McKinley, the Potters have defeated Steubenville, Tiltonville, Youngstown Chagrin, Youngstown Rayen, Youngstown South, Cambridge, Zanesville, Monaca, Pa., and Lisbon.

Defeats chalked up against the Potters were handed them by New Philadelphia, Akron West, Akron Garfield and Massillon. Three of the Potters' set-backs have been suffered in their last four games.

A strong defense has played an important part in boosting Liverpool to 10 victories. The Potters' offense is rated only fair, but their zone defense, which will add to the Quakers' problems, is considered as reliable as that of any team in the state.

The Quakers have encountered trouble with zone defenses all season, and there is little doubt that the same difficulty will confront them when they square off against the Potters Friday night.

Marvin Kinsey and Joe Wetzel are the mainstays of the East Liverpool combine. Kinsey is the leading offensive threat, while Wetzel is the floor general and the outstanding defensive player.

Kinsey has been troubled with a bad knee in the past few games and has not as yet reached the form which made him one of East Liverpool's most valuable players last year.

Wetzel, the steady influence for the club, is classed by East Liverpool observers as the best defensive player to wear a Pottery City uniform in more than a decade. He seldom moves into front court to shoot, but starts all the plays and does a great deal of the back court ball-handling.

Working at the forward posts with Kinsey is Wayne W. A sophomore, who is heralded as a consistent scrapper but not a dangerous offensive threat.

Wetzel works at the guard positions with Bill Vocal, the third ranking player of the Potters' varsity. Vocal is a steady defensive player and figures frequently in the offensive attack.

Jack Savage, a six-foot, two-inch senior, is the center and the tallest member of the varsity. The Potters rely on Savage to drag in the rebounds to give them possession of the ball.

IT DIDN'T HAPPEN, BUT!

Editor, The News:
The flyer, coming a mile a minute, was whistling a warning for the watchman near midnight Tuesday. One gate was closed, one was open.

A boy and girl in a car, not hearing the warning bell drove onto the track. They saw the gate was down ahead. The cool-headed driver threw his gears in reverse and stepped on the gas.

The train went by, no one was hurt, but! It may have been your boy or your girl in that car. The motor might have stalled.

There was plenty of time for the gate to have been down. Did the watchman want to save the gate from damage? Are gates more expensive than lives?

OBSERVER.

WRIGHT CALLED A MORAL LEPER

That's State's Term; But He's 'Puppet of the Fates' to His Own Counsel

(By Associated Press)

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 10.—Paul A. Wright, confessed slayer of his wife and his friend, John Kimmel, heard himself branded by the prosecution as a "moral leper," and by his counsel, Jerry Giesler, as a "puppet of the fates" as final arguments brought his trial near its close today.

J. Miller Leavy, assistant prosecutor, castigated the former airport president for "dragging through muck and mire" the character of his victims. He ridiculed what he called the "fantastic defense of unconsciousness."

Giesler pictured Wright as head of $2,000,000 union air terminal on Nov. 9, when Mrs. Wright and Kimmel were slain—a man with "everything to lose and nothing to gain," and no motive whatever for the shootings before, Giesler said, the scene Wright found in his living room shocked him into temporary unconsciousness.

Giesler said that during his final summation today he would take the bullet-scarred piano bench on which Wright claims he found Mrs. Wright and Kimmel in an unnatural embrace, and demonstrate how the evidence showed the two were sitting when Wright came upon them.

The case was expected to reach the jury late today or early tomorrow.

Auto License Sales To Begin In March

COLUMBUS, Feb. 10.—Reserved automobile and truck license tags for 1933 will be placed in the mails beginning Feb. 15, State Registrar of Motor Vehicles Frank West announced today.

The general sale of the new plates will start March 1 by deputy registrars in all sections of the state. Although display of the new licenses will be required on and after April 1, they may be used at any time after March 10, Registrar West said.

The state has manufactured 2,250,000 sets of plates to meet this year's demands. Used in the manufacture of the tags were 1,200 tons of sheet steel, 6,500 gallons of backing and facing enamel as well as 1,200 gallons of numeral enamel.

The tags were manufactured at Ohio penitentiary under the direction of Tag Shop Superintendent Charles Knoedler who, when he assumed charge of the shop 20 years ago, turned out only 600,000 sets.

The tags this year will have the picture of a covered wagon on them, in observance of the 150th anniversary of the settlement of the Northwest Territory.

Rescue of Soviets Prevented by Gale

TROMSOE, Norway, Feb. 10.—An Arctic gale today wiped out hope of a rescue by dog team of four Russian scientists who have drifted on an ice floe from the north pole to a point off Greenland's east coast.

Yesterday the Russians reported they were within clear sight of the Greenland coast, and plans were made to send expeditions across the offshore ice from Norwegian and Danish stations along that coast. These were frustrated by the gale, which was reported blowing the Russians' small ice cake southward at the rate of 30 miles a day.

Experts here said the scientists' only hope of rescue was for their floe to remain intact until it reaches waters where pack ice would not impede rescue ships. They said the Norwegian coast guard vessel Fridjof Hansen could reach the ice-barrier in five days.

Dogdom's Elite Set For New York Show

NEW YORK, Feb. 10.—Twelve months of grooming and training reach their climax this weekend at Madison Square Garden, where, for three days starting today, the Westminster Kennel club show, Dogdom's world series and Kentucky Derby combined, holds sway.

There will be 3,093 dogs from tiny Chihuahuas to lordly Great Danes on the benches. From this array of canine aristocracy, John G. Bates of Morristown, N. J., on Saturday night will select the best dog in show.

Leading to this, grand finale judges will select the best in each of 90 breeds.

Idaho U. Adopts Personality Study

MOSCOW, Ida., Feb. 10.—Timid engineers and blushing coeds at the University of Idaho believe they have solved the "wallflower problem."

Led by a freshman, they petitioned school officials for a personality course—and got it.

"We don't hope to make every wallflower into a belle of the party," said Dr. Allen C. Lemon, psychologist and chief personality dispenser, "but we do hope to make life happier."

It's 'Sno Use MINERAL, Calif. Feb. 10.—Like the hockey players whose game was postponed because of cold, California skiers are fretting because of too much snow.

The state championship meet was postponed when heavy snows made the course inaccessible.

THEATER Attractions

A clever comedy-romance, "Paradise for Three" with a German setting, brings Frank Morgan, Robert Young and Florence Rice in leading roles to the State theater Friday and Saturday.

Based on the belief that nearly every poor man would like to be a millionaire for two weeks and that every wealthy man would like to go back to the simple pleasure—for the same length of time—"Paradise for Three" tells the story of two men who changed places—an industrialist and an unemployed professor.

Morgan, the industrialist turns poor while Young, the professor, and Reginald Owen, a butler, become rich and powerful.

It works, until Morgan's daughter, Florence Rice, the dishwasher, Edna May Oliver, and his "girl friend," Mary Astor, find out about it.

But in the meantime Morgan, who has won a contest and has been given two week's vacation at a swank Alpine resort, appears to be a poor man and therefore is treated badly by the management. Only one man is kind to him, and he is Henry Hull, the dishwasher.

When Morgan's family makes him return to his normal life as the wealthy capitalist, he orders the hotel manager and porter to his office, explains that he was actually staying at his own hotel, reminds them of their treatment toward him and makes the dishwasher their boss.

Miss Rice and Young are seen in the leading romantic roles. Audience will remember Henry Hull for his stage portrayal of Jeeter in "Tobacco Road."

Nazi Film Booked

In addition to the main feature at the State Friday and Saturday is a new March of Time feature, the much discussed "Inside Nazi Germany-1938".

The Grand will show a Gene Autry western "Springtime in the Rockies" to Friday and Saturday. Polly Bowles is cast as a young agricultural college graduate who comes out west with three of her girl friends to teach such hordes as Gene Autry, Smiley Burnette, and company how to run a ranch.

The fireworks are plentiful from the moment the four girls arrive at the ranch. When they invest in a herd of sheep, intending to bring them into a cattle country, the cowboys almost give up.

Concluding Tonight

Concluding tonight are: "She's Got Everything" (Ann Southern and Gene Raymond, Helen Broderick and Victor Moore) and "She Married an Artist" (John Boles, Lull Deste and Frances Drake) at the State.

At the Grand are: "City Girl" (Phyllis Brooks, Ricardo Cortez) and "Sergeant Murphy" (Ronald Reagan and Mary Maguire).

Meeting Arranged By Horse Breeders

L. P. McCann, extension specialist of Ohio State university, will be present at a meeting of horse breeders of Columbiana and Mahoning counties to be held here Friday. They will meet in the basement of the Methodist church, at 10 a. m.

The forenoon program will consist of a talk by Glenn Bates on "Draft Horse Type" and McCann will discuss "Feeding Farm Horses."

In the afternoon Dr. E. McElwee of Lisbon will discuss "Horse Bots and Treating for Other Internal Parasites." McCann will discuss "Raising and Training Farm Colts and the Care of Work Horses."

CHICAGO GANG FEUD RENEWED

Three Smiling Gunmen Kill Alleged Racketeer, Wound Three Others; Probe Opens

(By Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Feb. 10.—Investigators pried into underworld rackets today in search of a motive for the slaying of one man and wounding of three others by three smiling gunmen.

Rivalry between racketeers in illicit alcohol and gambling enterprises offered the only immediate explanation.

The three killers, disguised as hunters, entered a bakery in suburban Chicago Heights yesterday. "Hello Sam," said one of them to Sam Costello.

As Costello extended his hand in greeting the gunmen opened fire. He fell mortally wounded with nine slugs in the abdomen. He was wearing one of the diamond belt buckles given by Al Capone to his close friends during the turbulent prohibition era.

The 43-year-old victim's brother, Nick, 32, and two companions, Joseph Di Giovanni, 40, and Malo Bagagli, 41, were wounded. They and Sam's bodyguard, Luigi Onofrio, 28, returned the fire as the killers fled.

Liverpool Legion Asks Patrol Office

EAST LIVERPOOL, Feb. 10.—Alfred Wedgewood Post, No. 374, American Legion, assumed leadership today of a movement for establishment of state highway patrol station here to facilitate handling calls in the Ohio valley.

The legislature recently appropriated funds to increase the personnel of the highway patrol from 120 to 200. Resignations have reduced the force to 110.

The lone station for Columbiana and Mahoning counties is located at Salem, where four patrolmen are on duty. To reach the farthest point within their jurisdiction, requires a two-hour automobile trip at the car's maximum speed, police said.

Hyde Will Speak

Denies Al Capone Is Wearing 'Jacket'

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 10.—Out of a welter of conflicting reports today came a flat denial that ex-gangster Al Capone was confined in a strait-jacket in Alcatraz island's prison hospital.

The only thing definite is that the once boastful Chicago gang chief is in a hospital cot, under observation for insanity, in the prison for America's most hardened criminals.

"Capone is being given the best of attention," said Warden James A. Johnston. "He has shown no signs of violence since entering the hospital and has not been in a strait-jacket."

"I don't propose to issue hourly bulletins on Capone's temperature and pulse. Capone has no special nurse. He is being given the usual care and there is no intention at this time to remove him to any other institution."
